

For a

New Year

The Deborah Report

Once the Christmas decorations are packed away and the kids all go back to school, we welcome the thought that now life can get back to normal. Or not! Perhaps our daily schedules will take on the structure of what was normal before the holidays, but change is coming. That message came through very clearly when Harvey and I attended the first Global Prophetic Summit in November. More than 60 seasoned prophets from all around the world had gathered in Dallas to hear and share the Word of the Lord. I considered it a real privilege to be there to witness this new thing! Truly, the Lord is unifying His worldwide body and mobilizing Kingdom minded people to work together to manifest His purposes for this hour.

Hearing from so many prophets during one gathering was quite an experience! I realize that many people don't know that they've ever met a modern-day prophet, let alone experience ministry through one. So, before I begin to share some of the things that came forth, I want to point out some key things to help you get the most out of what you read.

First of all, Ephesians 4:11 tells us that God gave us what is now called the five-fold ministry, "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some pastors and teachers..." These ministry roles all operate rather differently from each other; obviously, otherwise why would the Bible distinguish them with different names? My point is that prophets operate quite differently from pastors, which is the role most familiar to most Christians. Pastors and teachers spend hours preparing messages to help people understand the Bible or spiritual concepts. Prophets don't. That's not their job. Their role is to reveal what the Lord is currently saying. Though that is a wonderful thing, most people usually want it to come with more explanation! Perhaps that's why there are so many more pastors than prophets. Anyway, a prophet expects that upon hearing the Word, if you or I need more explanation, we will take it to God in prayer to get fuller understanding. So, when I share the prophecies that came forth, be prepared to feel like you want some explanation to go with it. When I can elaborate, I will; but it most likely won't feel like it's enough. Remember that these Words must speak to countless people of all ages, so interpreting them for your particular perspective or circumstances is not my intention, neither theirs. My intention is to make you aware of the things that God is saying to us, currently, and encourage you to seek the Lord so that He can quicken your understanding.

The first thing shared came through the Prophetic Council, "A warrior anointing is being released. You need to be willing to be a family representative. And part of this anointing is to get resurrection life back into your vision. It will change you, shake you, and release you!"

(See what I mean, you want some explanation, right?) We need to become aggressive in prayer on behalf of our families. We need to be willing to fight and do spiritual warfare on behalf of those we love. Our perspectives (vision) must be based in the miraculous, life-changing power of the gospel so that we have a passion to see our loved ones free from entanglement in the natural world around us.

James Goll, Prophet from the U.S.: "This is a new day; do not judge by what is in the past. These are the days of acceleration!! God is sending a power surge to activate. These are the days of momentum!" I can certainly testify to this. I have seen acceleration at a level that is astounding to me. Remember that the Lord desires that you mix faith with these declarations in order to see evidence in your own life. It is the same for all things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, you can have what you believe. The moment you believed, salvation was yours. Prior to believing, it was a divine invitation or a spiritual concept to you. Upon believing, it was quickened to you-made alive in you by the Holy Spirit. It is the same for these prophetic declarations; they are divine invitations which contain spiritual concepts for "whosoever will." Knock on the door of heaven with your invitation and tell the Lord you want to take Him up on His Word!

Stacey Campbell, Founder of the Prophetic Council in Canada: "...there is an acceleration of knowledge... knowledge is growing. God is pouring out an acceleration of the prophetic, where 'good' will become the enemy of 'the best.' Things are going to be very, very different... The spirit of delay is being broken off your life! It is time to upgrade; we can no longer walk on the same level! This is a season of moving from immaturity to maturity. We need a new way of thinking as to how to do church. If we don't shift the way we do church from 'Sunday thinking and doing' to 'Monday through Friday doing and thinking', we will not be effective." Notice, these prophets are from two different countries, yet they are both speaking of acceleration. The Bible says, "out of the mouth of two or three witnesses, let a thing be established." (Deut. 19:15)

Chuck Pierce, Prophet from the U.S.: "...This year will be tumultuous... the year of the new song! There will be a renewal of worship. There's a sharp turn ahead. In fact, there will be many turns... your wars ahead will unlock your provision... It is an amazing journey that we are coming into! Endure!"

Cindy Jacobs, Prophet from the U.S.: "You must learn to war, to overcome, to contend for your miracle."

Emma Stark, Seer from Scotland: "The Lord is releasing an anointing on communication which is very rare; it only happens when history is at a key pivot point. He is putting fire in the mouths of the radical!" Satan's strategy is omnipresent deception (media, education, Hollywood, etc.) We are not to yearn for the way it used to be. Instead we are to seek strategies for prophetic persuasion. I think that what is meant by prophetic persuasion is communication that comes forth with a divine unction to penetrate deception. If you have loved ones whom you assume will not listen or 'hear' anything that they deem having to do with 'religion,' seek God for this anointing on communication (whether it comes through you or someone else) that will penetrate whatever deception has closed their minds.

Mark Gonzales, Pastor from Texas: "There is a shift coming in the governments of the earth. God is looking for a people who speak two languages: the language of heaven--prayer--and the language of earth--action. God is aligning us through the prophetic." This is interesting to me. I am old enough to remember the days when the really spiritual types of people were too busy with their spiritual endeavors to get involved in politics or any type of civic activism. Those days are over! God wants to see spirituality infusing activism to bring change.

Bishop Harry Jackson, Presiding bishop of the International Communion of Evangelical Churches: "I am shifting your season." Allow God to have permission to work in your character. "The counterfeit is being moved aside so that what He is authoring will stand in authority."

Mike Jacobs, Co-founder of Generals International with his wife Cindy: "Warfare helps you deal with the past, so that you can move into the new season." Mike said this not as a prophetic word, but rather as a word of exhortation and encouragement to those who are reluctant to get involved in spiritual warfare. It was noteworthy that many prophets were calling for the need for warfare.

Dr. Bill Hamon, considered by many to be the father of the current prophetic movement: "God is raising up a company of prophets to prepare the way for the return of the Lord--the womb that will conceive the revelation."

I remember that he, too, spoke of spiritual warfare. I could never begin to pass on everything that was said and released at the Summit gathering, but I want you to get some of the key points and elements. I realize that these newsletters I do end up in the trash, hopefully after you read them. However, let me suggest that you keep this one; perhaps in your Bible, but somewhere that you can get it out again later. I believe that at some point you will have reason to think of one of these prophecies and you will want to revisit what was said. You know that thought, "Ooh, what did that prophet person say? I wish I could remember, because maybe this is what he or she meant! I think that's what's going on here."

One of the most gratifying aspects of the Prophetic Summit was the accountability and credibility that was required of the prophets who brought forth a prophecy. The gathering consisted of mature ministry leaders from several nations. These people whom I quoted have all been in ministry for many years and are continually held accountable to their words. The other thing I couldn't help noticing was the consistency. Though these people are from many different places, often their words would have some of the same key elements as had already been brought forth. This is quite amazing really--that this many voices would all have the same echo. Because I only have space to give you a taste of what was said, I can't show fully just how much consistency there was, but it was strongly evident.

I hope you are encouraged as you read these things. God is still involved in the affairs of men and women, and He is moving mightily in these last days. He is still the same miracle-working God that the Bible reveals. He says in His Word, "I am the LORD; I change not." Mal. 3:6 If He has spoken through His prophets all through the ages, why not now? Remember, some of these prophetic utterances are like Divine invitations, offering you an opportunity to receive what is being offered personally. Those invitations will require you to actively choose to believe that what He says can become part of your experience. Then pray the prayer of faith and receive! Other things that were brought forth are big picture things--the declaration that there is a shift coming in the governments of the earth, for example--that will happen whether you believe them or not.

Unfortunately, it is so easy to allow the things of the natural push the spiritual to the background in our lives. Reminding us that God is still speaking in the midst of a culture that increasingly wants us to become dulled to spiritual things is enormously encouraging. He is definitely speaking, but are we listening?

Deborah Ministries International ministers in response to Isaiah 61:1, "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound."
